

POINT CAPRI

Guest Compendium

ST ANDREWS BEACH • MORNINGTON PENINSULA

Just breathe.

Everything you need for an easy stay, and not much more.

Updated October 2026

WELCOME

Disappear for a while.

Point Capri is a private coastal place for slowing down, reconnecting and doing very little. Settle in, head for the dunes, soak beneath the stars, cook on your deck or simply stay put.

BUNURONG COUNTRY

Point Capri is on Bunurong Country. We acknowledge and pay respect to the Bunurong people, the Traditional Custodians of these lands and waters.

Departure

Checkout is 11:00am. Please follow the access/key instructions provided for your stay when you leave.

Need us?

Text or call Point Capri on 0466 148 765. We give guests space, but we are close by if you need a hand.

Each Hideaway includes the same core facilities, but layout, décor, location and individual features vary. If something is not right, please tell us as soon as you notice it so we have the opportunity to help.

The ocean is part of the stay.

The track from Point Capri leads through the coastal dunes toward St Andrews Beach, within Mornington Peninsula National Park. It is a beautiful stretch of open ocean, but it deserves respect.

IMPORTANT BEACH SAFETY

St Andrews Beach is unpatrolled. Parks Victoria warns of unpredictable rips, strong currents, rocky reefs and large waves and does not recommend swimming here. Enjoy the beach for walking, rock pools and the landscape, and always check conditions.

- Stay on existing paths and follow Parks Victoria signage. Hooded Plovers nest in the dunes and snakes are also part of this landscape.
- Low tide is generally the best time for long beach walks and exploring rock pools. Keep well clear of the water when surf conditions are rough.
- Beach towels are provided in your Hideaway. Please bring them back with you and use the outdoor hooks to dry them.
- The sandy return track can be steep. If you prefer an easier return, use the public St Andrews Beach access and walk back along Paradise Drive.

Warm water. Quiet nights.

Your Hideaway is designed for bathing and switching off. Take your time with it.

Private spa. Fill the spa until the jets are covered before turning them on. A small amount of the supplied bubble bath is plenty. Please drain the spa when you finish; local possums are curious and are not good swimmers.

Hot water. The Hideaways use instantaneous gas hot water. If it takes a moment to arrive, run the hot tap fully for a short time to allow the system to activate.

Outdoor bathing. The private rain-head shower and outdoor spa are part of the Point Capri experience. Robes and slippers are provided so you can move easily between inside and out.

Sauna. The shared outdoor infrared barrel sauna is available to Point Capri guests. Access and use details are provided during your stay.

Bath products. The soap, shampoo, conditioner, body lotion and bubble bath are from local maker Dindi Naturals. If you would like to buy any of the products, ask us and we will confirm current availability and pricing.

Wildlife. Ringtail possums are regular visitors. They can sound surprisingly heavy on roofs and decks at night; it is usually just the locals passing through.

SLEEP

The beds use MicroCloud hotel bedding selected for softness, comfort and a good night's sleep. Extra blankets are available in the Hideaway.

STAY IN

Cook. Pour. Stay put.

There is no need to go anywhere. Each Hideaway has the basics for an easy breakfast, simple meals and a long evening outside.

Coffee & tea

Private BBQ

Gas BBQ and an outdoor hot-water sink for cooking and cleaning up.

Fridge

Drinks provided in your Hideaway fridge are complimentary. Please leave the fridge temperature as set.

Please flush toilet paper only. Bins are provided for everything else.

We keep the Hideaways deliberately low-tech. There are books and games for slower moments, as well as TV and entertainment options if you want them. Please keep sound at a considerate level for other guests and neighbours. Quiet hours are from 9:00pm to 9:00am.

No smoking or vaping indoors. Additional cleaning, deodorising or damage charges may apply if this condition is not observed.

BEFORE YOU GO

Leave slowly.

Checkout is 11:00am. A few simple things help us prepare the Hideaway for the next guests.

- Take a final look for chargers, clothing, toiletries and anything tucked into drawers or beside the bed.
- Leave the Hideaway access/key on the bed, turn off all lights, heater/AC and fans, and close the main door behind you.
- Please leave the BBQ and cooking equipment reasonably tidy, place all dirty dishes in the dishwasher and return beach towels to the bathroom floor in the Hideaway.
- Place rubbish in the bins in your Hideaway or take it to the bins in your car park. Recycling bottles can be left in the outside BBQ tin baskets or placed in the recycling bin in your car park.
- If you leave something behind, contact us as soon as possible. Items returned by post will incur postage plus an administration charge. We keep lost property for up to one month before donating or disposing of unclaimed items.

ONE LAST THING

Local opening hours, park conditions and venue details can change. We have deliberately kept this guide short and linked to current sources where possible. If you want a recommendation while you are here, just ask.

Stay a little longer. Leave a little slower.
